

Your Privacy Online – For Internet Users	The digital age has made online banking an everyday reality. Bucks County Bank commitment to safeguard your privacy extends to the Internet. Some information regarding our Internet process: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ If you bank online and want to access your account, you'll need to supply information as requested so we can verify your identity.</li> <li>➤ If you allow us to send you e-mail messages, we will retain the information you provide us to deliver e-mails of specific interest to you.</li> <li>➤ If you send messages to Bucks County Bank, may retain your e-mail message, your e-mail address and our reply to you.</li> </ul> We may use cookies, which are pieces of data that help web sites recognize return visitors, personalize your online visit and collect site-visitation statistics. If you are not comfortable with our use of the cookie technology, you can set your browser to refuse cookies. However, some of our services depend on cookies and you may not be able to access those services by refusing cookies. Bucks County Bank may store information collected during your online visit in an electronic database. We use security measures to protect against loss, misuse and alteration of data stored in our systems.
Children's Online Privacy Protection Act	Our website does not include children's pages and we do not collect, use, or disclose personal information from children.